STUDENT ENGAGEMENT EVENTS!

July 4 - 8

FLORIDA
SOUTHWESTERN
STATE COLLEGE

VIRTUAL – ALL CAMPUSES

11 am
Working Wednesday:
Professional Communication
Getting ready to start a new career? Need some help preparing for the workplace? Join us for a mixture of activities, videos, and PowerPoint as we explore communication styles, written, verbal, and nonverbal communication.
Presented by Becky Fahrner. ZOOM.

11:30 am
Anatomy of Online Learning (also ZOOM)
College students often enroll in online classes with the assumption that online courses are easier, have less work, and take less time than traditional classes. This Student Engagement series brings together a panel of online experts, including FSW Online professors, students taking online courses, and instructional designers. Our interactive panel will break down the structure of online course navigation, explain instructor expectations, and provide success strategies using real scenarios experienced by FSW students in online classes. Join this session to identify and learn how to overcome the barriers to online learning success.
ZOOM.

1 to 2 pm
Your Leadership Style
Discover your leadership by taking the HRDQ leadership assessment followed by a discussion about how you can apply and use your leadership skills.
ZOOM.

WED 7-06

THU 7-07
