Elevating Opportunities and Changing Lives For 60 Years - Florida SouthWestern State College

What started back in 1962 as a dream for equal opportunity and equal access to education here in downtown Fort Myers is now a five county collegiate powerhouse. What started with a graduating class of just 67 students now presents certificates and degrees to 3000 college students a year. That's more than any higher education institution in Southwest Florida. What started as Edison Junior College is now Florida SouthWestern State College. We elevate opportunities for all of Southwest Florida and we've been doing it for 60 years.
